

TUTORING FOR PAY

No teacher may tutor for pay a student who is a member of his/her class unless special exceptions are approved by the Superintendent. Tutorial assistance to students is considered a normal responsibility of the teacher, except in extenuating circumstances.

A teacher may tutor other students on school premises for pay only in accordance with the following conditions.

1. Tutoring is done after the regular school day, unless special exceptions are approved by the Superintendent or designee.
2. Tutoring in the school must have the approval of the principal and must be in accordance with District requirements and guidelines for community use of school facilities.
3. When tutoring on school premises is approved, it will be performed for no more than the hourly rate of pay received by home instructors employed by the Board.

[Adoption date: August 14, 2001]

[Re-adoption date: May 11, 2015]