Board of Education adopts pay-to-participate plan

(Hilliard City Schools, Hilliard, Ohio) – The Hilliard City School District Board of Education adopted the following fee structure on February 10 in the event the upcoming 9.5-mill operating levy fails. With a failure of the levy on March 2, all funding for extracurricular activities will be cut. The following program would provide students an opportunity to continue participating in extracurricular activities, at their own expense.

Passage of the levy nullifies the fee schedule.
