Notes from the Principal

Panther Nation,

This week both the HMS Band and Orchestra programs showcased their talents on stage in front of packed audiences. Thank you to all parents/guardians for your support of the performing arts!

Today officially marked the end of the 3rd grading period. As grades become finalized, please be sure to check Home Access Center and your mailbox for this quarter's grade card.

Our annual dodgeball tournament is underway as this letter is sent. The gym is jammed and loud. What a great day to be a Panther!

Have a great weekend and GO PANTHERS (and Buckeyes)!

Joel Assenheimer

Principal

We are Hilliard

We invite you to participate in a special community celebration called We Are Hilliard. Hilliard City Schools and the Hilliard Arts Council are hosting the community event on Saturday, March 18th, from 10 am - 3 pm at Hilliard Heritage Middle School.

To make our We Are Hilliard event special, the committee invites you to submit a Google Form to host a table to showcase you! Everyone is encouraged to sign up. The goal of the event is to celebrate and honor our beautiful and diverse community.

Digital Wellness Month

This week, let's take a look at student's Citizenship skills in a digital world. More and more often, students live and communicate with each other through online tools and social media sites. Here are some family tips from Common Sense Media to help them develop good techniques when communicating and interacting with others online.
