

Fire Drills

We have fire drills at school every month.

These are practices so that if there is a real fire, we can all get out of the building safely.

To make sure that everyone knows about the fire drill, there is a very loud bell and lights that flash.

I get up and walk outside with my class.

The siren stops when the drill is over and I walk back in with my class.