Keep in mind...

Please do not choose classes based on what your friends are taking. There is no guarantee friends will be in the same class during the same period with the same teacher.

These are course REQUESTS only. A request does not guarantee placement into that particular course. Course prerequisites, course offerings, course periods, and/or seat availability can affect which classes you receive.

Making any schedule changes next year is always extremely difficult. Please review the courses you choose carefully and choose your courses wisely.
