A Note from the Director

For many years, I have had the honor of directing shows at Hilliard Station to students who, for the most part, are brand new to theater. I love teaching them music, choreography, blocking and hard work that goes on behind the scenes. These students have touched my heart due to their true kindness towards each other and their desire to learn and grow as a team. You have all done a wonderful job raising them and I love that I got to have some time with them in their educational journey. I believe that for many students, the theater bug may have bitten, and if so, I welcome them back for our middle school musical next fall. Legally Blonde, which I also will be directing, will be a combined middle school musical that all students from Memorial, Weaver and Heritage can audition for.

Although we all know “They WILL grow up”, I hope that Peter Pan will be a precious memory for your family for years to come.

Joy!
