

School, Family Engagement Plan
Scioto Darby Elementary – Principal: Holly Meister
2024-2025

Revision Date: November 1, 2024

In support of strengthening student academic achievement, Scioto Darby Elementary receives Title I, Part A funds and must jointly develop with, agree upon with, and distribute to parents and family members of participating children, a written parent and family engagement policy that contains information required by section 1116(b) and (c) of the “Every Student Succeeds Act” (ESSA). The policy establishes the school’s expectations for parent and family engagement and describes how the school will implement a number of specific parent and family engagement activities, and it is incorporated into the school’s plan submitted to the district.

Scioto Darby Elementary agrees to implement the following requirements as outlined by Section 1116:

- Involve parents, in an organized, ongoing and timely way, in the planning, review and improvement of programs under Title I, Part A, including the planning, review and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy and the joint development of the targeted assistance program plan.
- Update the school parent and family engagement policy periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school, distribute it to the parents of participating children and make the parent and family engagement policy available to the local community.
- Provide full opportunities, to the extent practicable, for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under Section 1111 of ESSA in an understandable and uniform format including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.
- Be governed by the following statutory definition of parent and family engagement and carry out programs, activities and procedures in accordance with this definition:
- Parent and family engagement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring:
 - Parents play an integral role in assisting their children’s learning;
 - Parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their children’s education at school;
 - Parents are full partners in their children’s education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their children; and
- Other activities are carried out, such as those described in Section 1116 of ESSA.

Required School Parent and Family Engagement Policy Components

The school parent and family engagement policy includes a description of how the school will implement or accomplish each of the following components:

- Jointly Developed

Scioto Darby Elementary will take the following actions to involve parents in an organized, ongoing and timely manner in the planning, review and improvement of Title I programs, including opportunities for regular meetings, if requested by parents, to formulate suggestions and participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children and respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible.

In October of the 2024-25 school year, Scioto Darby Elementary will establish a Title I parent committee that will meet throughout the school year. The purpose of the committee will be to plan, review and improve parent and family engagement programs. Scioto Darby will hold meetings in-person. The meetings are scheduled for:

Meeting	Date	Time	Via	Place
#1	10/16/24	6:00 PM	Face to Face	Cafeteria

In addition to members of the Scioto Darby Elementary Staff, a list of parent committee members will be supplied upon request.

→ Scioto Darby Elementary Staff Members

◆ Holly Meister, Principal

- Travis Speakman, Title I Teacher

Parents - The Scioto Darby Elementary school and staff strives to partner with parents and is grateful for the parents that have volunteered to be a part of this committee. New members are always welcome.*

- Annual Title I Meeting

Scioto Darby Elementary will take the following actions to conduct an annual meeting, at a convenient time, and encourage and invite all parents of participating children to attend to inform them about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program, parents' requirements, the school parent and family engagement policy, and the school-parent compact.

Scioto Darby Elementary will hold its Annual Title I Meeting face-to-face on October 16, 2024, at 8:00PM. An email invitation will be sent home to each student receiving Title I services. The purpose of the meeting will be to disseminate information about the Title I program specifically offered at Scioto Darby Elementary School.

- Communications

Scioto Darby Elementary will take the following actions to provide parents of participating children the following:

- Timely information about the Title I programs;
- Flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide with Title I funds, transportation, child care or home visits, as such services relate to parent and family engagement; and
- Information related to the school and parent programs, meetings and other activities, is sent to the parents of participating children in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand.

At Scioto Darby Elementary we use many means of communication to connect with parents. Face-to-face, written correspondence, phone calls, and special invitations sent by Title I teachers. An interpreter is used to communicate with non-English speaking parents, and documents sent home are often translated into other languages.

Holly Meister, principal of Scioto Darby Elementary states, "Regular and on-going communication is essential for a successful home-school partnership. Our teachers, in partnership with our EL team and Spanish Bilingual Family Liaison are available to support families when needed. Interpretation support is always available and staff can be flexible about when and where we meet with families.

- School-Parent Compact

Scioto Darby Elementary will take the following actions to jointly develop with parents of participating children, a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and how the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the state's high standards.

As soon as students are assessed at Scioto Darby Elementary and a rank order list of eligible students is created, the classroom teacher and the Title teacher call parents and explain how Title services work. Parents are advised of the upcoming Annual Title I informational meeting. During that meeting each parent receives a School/Parent Compact and a detailed explanation. Parents are asked to return the compact to their child's Title reading teacher. Title I teachers are responsible for the collection of all compacts and must follow up with parents who do not return them.

- Reservation of Funds (applicable to districts with Title I allocations of $500,000 or more)
Scioto Darby Elementary will take the following actions to involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the 1 percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement is spent.

Holly Meister, principal of Scioto Darby Elementary is aware that the Hilliard City School District is a district that is allocated $500,000 or more in funding and must reserve 1 percent of their funding for parent and family engagement. At the December 7, 2024 Parent & Family Engagement Committee meeting, "Reservation of Funds" is an agenda item. Mrs. Meister will explain "Reservation of Funds" and share a list of how Scioto Darby currently uses this money for parent and family engagement activities and programs, as well as, gather input into how the funds might be used in other ways.

- Coordination of Services
Scioto Darby Elementary will, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement programs and activities with other federal, state, and local programs, including public preschool programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children.

At Scioto Darby Elementary , we work closely with our Community Partners, including the Columbus Public Library, Ballet Met's Momentum, Norwich Township Fire, and Hilliard Police to provide students with opportunities for engagement that extends beyond the classroom and school. We also work closely with our Syntero partners to provide on-going mental health support and counseling. We also sponsor outreach programs to support families experiencing food insecurity.

Building Capacity of Parents

Scioto Darby Elementary will build the parents' capacity for strong parent and family engagement to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school and the community to improve student academic achievement through the following:

- Provide parents with a description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessments used to measure student progress and the achievement levels of the challenging state academic standards;
- Provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's achievement, such as literacy training and using technology (including education about the harms of copyright piracy), as appropriate, to foster parent and family engagement; and
- Provide assistance to parents of participating children, as appropriate, in understanding topics such as the following:
 - The challenging state's academic standards;
 - The state and local academic assessments, including alternate assessments;
 - How to monitor their children's progress; and
 - How to work with educators to improve the achievement of their children.

Across the campus, our priority is educating the whole child. We utilize the District Literacy Curriculum (Wit and Wisdom) and Math Curriculum (Illustrative Math) as strong academic foundations. Responsive Classroom and the Zones of Regulation are our community frameworks that give us the tools to positively connect and contribute to our community. We take time to reflect and emphasize building understanding of ourselves and empathy that can be extended to others.

The Scioto Darby Elementary Innovation and Discovery Specialist (IDS) works to educate students on digital citizenship and the use of technology to support learning. This team also helps to plan for hands-on learning experiences in our Innovation and Discovery Center (IDC).

Teachers at Scioto Darby Elementary communicate academic progress officially every twelve weeks at progress report time and with interim reports half-way between marking periods.
