

What can Scouting America do for you?

First: Earn Your High School Community Service Seal AND:

Thinking of joining the Military?

As an Eagle Scout, you'll start out as an E-2.

Looking for Scholarship Opportunities?

Life and Eagle Scouts can apply for Scholarships through:

The National Eagle Association; American Legion Eagle Scout of the Year; Veterans of Foreign Wars Scout of the Year; Lawrence S. and Mabel Cooke Scholarship; Michigan State University; North Carolina State University; Stephen F. Austin State University; University of Arkansas; University of Oklahoma; University of Tennessee; Virginia Tech; Western Illinois University; Savannah College of Art and Design; Saint Louis University; Norwich University; Texas A&M University; University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Appalachian State University, Clemson University, Georgia Southern University, Missouri University of Science and Technology, Robert Morris University, University of Florida, University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, University of South Carolina, West Virginia University, Western Carolina University, and more

In- State- Ohio Wesleyan University; Otterbein University; Baldwin-Wallace University; Waynesburg University; VFW Department of Ohio; Hiram College; Wilmington College; Ohio University; University of Cincinnati; University of Dayton; The Ohio State University; Miami University (Ohio), and more

Being a Scout also gives youth the opportunity to:

Try new things, Provide service to others, Build self-confidence, Reinforce ethical standards, Establish lifelong friendships, Preparation for Interviews, Survival skills, Networking opportunities, Make a difference in your community, and so much more!

Scouting America aims to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Scout Law.

Scouting America
Simon Kenton Council